With state-of-the-art infrastructure, the University has created a vibrant academic environment conducive to higher learning & research. This includes 200 smart classrooms that support blended learning, real-industry-like labs that foster on-the-job learning in students, a tech-enabled library with over 1 lakh collection of books, and most importantly, modern pedagogy. REVA currently has numerous students on campus that come from all around the country. The campus has exclusive Halls of Residence which provides comfortable accommodation for boys & girls, apart from catering to the needs of all cuisine and ensuring adequate amenities are provided to make their stay an extended home.

In its mission to become a social impact university, REVA University has initiated several Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives. Jagruti, Abhivridhhi, Vanamahotsava, Education on Wheels, and Pragna are a few of the several projects in REVA. REVA has now moved on to become a Social Impact University and has aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. Through these initiatives, REVA aspires to become an innovative University by developing a social connection with leadership qualities, ethical and moral values, research culture, and innovative skills through higher education of global standards.

From the Chancellor's Desk

Dear Students,

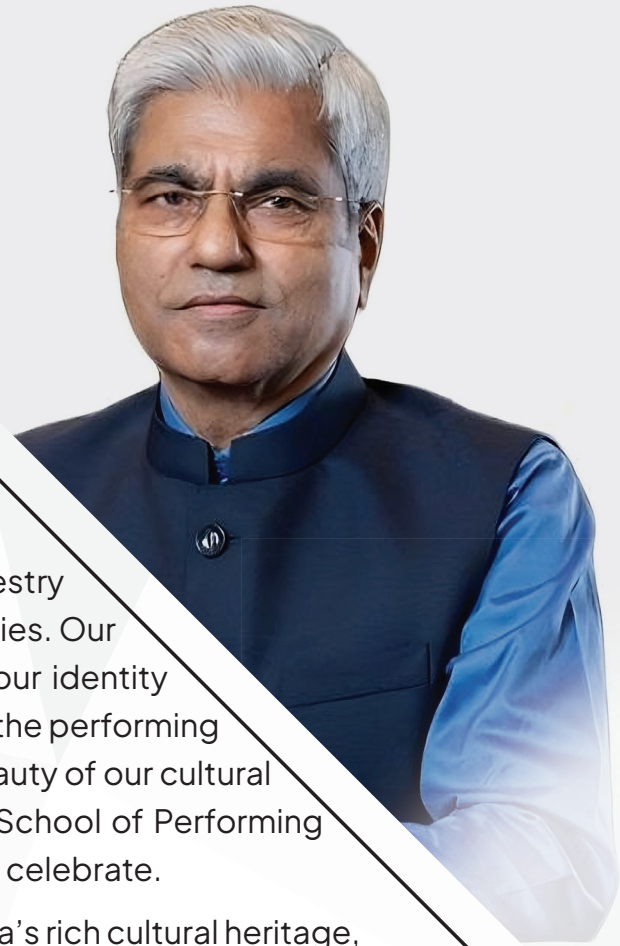

India is a land of diverse traditions, where the rich tapestry of heritage and culture has been cherished for centuries. Our age-old arts and cultural practices not only define our identity but also serve as a vital link to our past. Among these, the performing arts stand as a vibrant testimony to the depth and beauty of our cultural legacy. It is this very essence that REVA University's School of Performing Arts and Indic Studies (SoPA&IS) seeks to uphold and celebrate.

Founded with the vision to preserve and promote India's rich cultural heritage, the School of Performing Arts & Indic Studies is committed to nurturing the heartbeat of our nation's artistic traditions. In an era where the performing arts are gaining unprecedented recognition as viable and respected career paths, our School stands as a beacon of excellence. We offer a wide array of unique and challenging programs designed to shape the future artists of our country. Our curriculum is meticulously crafted to meet international standards of excellence.

As we expand our horizons in the School of Performing Arts & Indic Studies, we remain steadfast in our mission to blend tradition with innovation. Here, we prepare students not only to excel in their craft but also to become ambassadors of our cultural legacy on the global stage.

As the Chancellor of the University, I want to ensure that all the REVAites have equal opportunity to explore and learn in such a way that it transforms both the individual lives and the future of our society, nation, and beyond. With the dedicated efforts of our eminent faculty members, I am certain REVA University students will be guided and mentored in such a way that they will be the game-changers of tomorrow.

Best Wishes,
Dr. P. Shyama Raju
Chancellor
REVA University

Message from Pro Chancellor

Dear Students,

Indian arts hold an unparalleled significance in our cultural landscape, with Performing Arts standing as a vibrant testimony to this richness. Comprising music, dance, and theatre, the performing arts are now emerging as highly sought-after career choices like never before. The programmes offered by the School of Performing Arts & Indic Studies (SoPA&IS) at REVA University are meticulously designed to equip you for a promising future in this dynamic field. We aim to introduce a holistic approach to performing arts education in India, addressing gaps that have long been present in the traditional educational framework.

At REVA, our journey has been marked by continuous improvement and growth. We are committed to more than just imparting knowledge; we are dedicated to shaping futures. Our approach fosters holistic development, ensuring that our students are well-prepared to become leaders and innovators in their respective disciplines. The School of Performing Arts & Indic Studies goes beyond conventional teaching methods, providing an education that is a rich amalgamation of experiences and choices.

Our programmes are designed to prepare students not only for the world of arts but also for the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead. Through our curriculum, we empower students to explore the full spectrum of the performing arts, fostering creativity, critical thinking, and a deep appreciation for India's cultural heritage. At the School of Performing Arts & Indic Studies, we are not just educators; we are custodians of tradition, nurturing the next generation of artists who will carry forward our rich legacy.

Best Regards,
Mr. Umesh. S. Raju
