

Collaborative meeting between Indonesia Embassy and REVA University representatives took place in New Delhi on 08th October 2022. The discussions regarding bilateral collaborations including culture, heritage, the academic and research collaborations between REVA University and various universities of Indonesia were taken place during the meeting. The culture and heritage, academics and research are the main focus points.