

International Relations and Research Collaborations
In association with
School of Management Studies
&
School of Legal Studies

Organized Faculty Interaction On

“Global Perspectives in Educational Landscape”

By

Dr. Aurel Sari, Associate Professor of Public International Law, University of Exeter, UK

Program Report

International Relations and Research Collaborations in association with School of Management Studies & School of Legal Studies, REVA University organized a faculty Interaction on “Global Perspectives in Educational Landscape” by Dr. Aurel Sari, Associate Professor of Public International Law, University of Exeter, UK on 28 June 2024 at C K Prahalad Seminar Hall, REVA University.

The faculty interaction led by Dr. Aurel Sari shed light on the importance of internationalization in higher education, focusing on why Exeter is a prime choice for international students, the necessity of foreign partnerships, and the value of academic collaborations.

The commencement of the guest talk and interactive session was initiated with a warm welcome address from Prof. Shreekritha, the Coordinator of the International Relations and Research Cell (IRRC) at the School of Management Studies. Subsequently, Dr. Amit Anand, Assistant Professor, School of Legal Studies introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Aurel Sari. The formal closure of the session was given by Prof. Aishwarya, who extended a gracious vote of thanks to all participants and speakers for their valuable contributions.

E Banner:

School of Management Studies | School of Legal Studies

in association with
International Relations and Research Collaborations
Organises Faculty Interaction on

Global Perspectives in Educational Landscape

Resource Person
Dr. Aurel Sari
Associate Professor of Public International Law
University of Exeter, England

 28th June, 2024  02:30 PM to 03:30 PM
 C K Prahalad Seminar Hall

www.reva.edu.in

